Bonspiel Ended In Blaze Of Glory Late Friday Evening

One of the most successful bonspiels ever held in Gleichen came to a conclusion late Friday evening.

There were 30 rinks entered from all over the district and play began at 8 o'clock Monday morning and each morning thereafter, until midnight each day games were in progress. Always there was a nice crowd round on hand to watch each rink do its best to out the other.

One record was set in this bonspiel by Mrs. Tom Brown. She was the only lady curler to play during the 8 in the morning and the last game played late at night. Mrs. Brown played four games the last day and had the proud distinction of helping her rink win first prize in the Ontario Laundry. No less proud was R. C. Clifford to win since he had the only lady curler to help him win.

To Hugh James' rink went the distinction of the only rink to win prizes in two events, first in the Grand Challenge and fourth in the Merchants.

In several instances in the early stages of the bonspiel some rinks were so far behind in the score by the time the seventh or eighth end arrived they acknowledged defeat and then went on to another competition to win a prize.

Following are the winning rinks: Grand Challenge: First, Hugh James, Second, W. Schmidt, Third, N. Duncan, Cluny, Fourth, Bob Brown.

Merchants: First, John Collins, Second, Dan MacDonald, Third, Eddie Holland, Fourth, Hugh James, Ontario Laundry.

First, R. C. Clifford, Second, Vera Green, Third, Bert Davenport, Fourth, Bert Horton, Tudor.

During the entire five days the lady curlers served refreshments in the waiting room and were kept very busy from early morning until midnight.

Friday night after the shooting and tumult had died down it was discovered someone had left an overcoat in the waiting room. Evidently it belongs to someone who won a prize. It is thought the excitement of winning created an artificial warmth that whisked the chilly atmosphere outside. If the owner will call at the rink he will be able to get his stray coat.

OBITUARY

MRS. SARA DUNCAN

Mrs. Sara Duncan, a resident of Arrowwood for the past 28 years died at her home last Thursday after a lengthy illness. She was born in the state of Ohio 74 years ago and was the mother of fourteen children of whom twelve survive, namely: Mrs. L. J. Beagle, Mrs. S. Gifford, Mrs. H. Rogers, Miss Mary Duncan, J. O. Duncan, C. H. Duncan, D. Duncan all of Arrowwood Sam Duncan of Gleichen, Mrs. J. Rogers, Edmonton Mrs. C. Miller of Wetaskiwin, Mrs. J. Rogers and Cameron Duncan of the state of Washington.

The family came to Alberta some 35 years ago and moved to Arrowwood in 1918. Her husband predeceased her eight years ago last March.

Funeral services for Mrs. Duncan were held at the Church of the Brethren, Arrowwood, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. M. Krueger officiating after which interment was in the family plot at the Arrowwood cemetery. C. W. Evans of Gleichen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Although rylons will officially be back in the stores next Tuesday many stores have stated that they will not be sold that day. Taking warning from stories of other places where crowds have stormed the counters and broken furniture and fixtures in a rush to get rylons, these shops are wary of making any announcement to the effect that they are coming back into the picture. In fact, one merchant came out with a good sized advertisement saying he would not be selling rylons on Tuesday.

E. G. Ferguson And Elmer Bollinger New School Trustees

The election of school trustees for the Gleichen school held Monday resulted in E. G. Ferguson and Elmer Bollinger being elected.

There were ninety-two votes cast and on tie count resulted as follows: E. G. Ferguson 38, Elmer Bollinger 33, F. K. A. Riddell 21.

The two new trustees will be serving their first term in office and succeeded P. Warner and Wm. Ferguson who have served for many years on the school board.

It is a good thing to have an election since it creates interest in school affairs by all who send children to school.

FROM THE FILES OF THE CALL TWENTY YEARS AGO

Miss N. Jones, who teaches in the Glendon district spent a few days in town last week visiting her parents. O. J. Cantelon has completed a well 103 feet deep for J. Kober, who is now flooded with the fine flow of water obtained.

Bob MacArthur has returned to California accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. A. Wright has returned to his school near Victoria after visiting relatives in Gleichen.

Rev. F. Duggan left on Monday for a visit to his home in England. This is the first time he has been home in ten years.

Pomer Ostrander, wife and children, have been visiting in town and returned to their home north of Edmonton.

L. K. Shatto, of Orville, Wash., returned to Gleichen on Monday on a short business trip. Mr. Shatto is well known here and in Arrowwood.

Log Hartsch and Cecil Young left Sunday for Portland, Ore., to make their fortune.

F. K. McKay has re-purchased the hardware business from Messrs. Flinn and Bros. and is already in charge. It seems Frank cannot keep out of business at Gleichen. Several times he has sold out and just as many times returned to the good old town.

Dr. Bowles was taken to a Calgary hospital suffering with pneumonia, but is said to be recovering nicely.

After 20 years of absence, F. H. Hargh has reached his store here is residing from the barter business.

F. M. Fullerton returned from Cyprus Hills with 18 head of horses that he had been running there. He says there is some difference between here and there.

Gleichen defeated the Brooks hockey team here Friday night 7-1. Gleichen line up: Jax James, Dr. Wright, D. Wilson, B. Brown, D. Young, S. McKay, E. Gooder, C. Morrow, Referee J. Kilby, goal judges, Dan McDonald and Walter James.

The Calgary Tigers and 22nd Battery hockey boys game was not up to expectations. Not through any fault of the Battery boys for they were there to do or die, but the much heralded Calgary Tigers were not up to the occasion. The score being 12-2 in favor of Gleichen, which once again indicates the quality of the game.

Mrs. D. Hardwick and children left Sunday morning to visit her former home in Scotland and will be absent for some time.

The oldest old timers admit they never saw a finer winter than this in Alberta, or anywhere else for that matter.

Tuesday afternoon about sixty farmers, north of town held a rabbit drive and succeeded in slaying over 200 of these animals. They report rabbits not nearly so numerous as they once did and the damage they have accomplished being slight as compared to a year ago. The farmers are, however, determined to be rid of these pests if possible.

The pomp and tradition of pre-war opening of legislatures will be witnessed once again when the second session of the tenth legislature opens Thursday. During the ceremony there will be a fifteen gun salute. Guards of honor will be supplied by the COTC detachment from the University of Alberta while the senior officers of the police and police officers will form the honorary escort for the lieutenant-governor into the legislative chamber.

HERE AND THERE

Dr. Wm. Sarnoff of Timmifall arrived in town last week to accept a position in Tex Gasky's boot shop. He is a brother of Mrs. Cassidy.

Capt. P. Windsor and Stan Haskayne arrived home from overseas last Saturday evening. They passed through town aboard the special train at about 3:30 p.m., got off at Calgary and later motored to Gleichen.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskayne kept open house that evening and many friends rallied to welcome the two soldiers home. The evening was spent in singing with Messrs. Sheppard, Goss, Big, and Haskayne supplying the music via the accordion and mandolin route. During the evening T. H. Berch made a state speech welcoming the boys home. Lou Michael, a master of ceremonies, poured tea and otherwise kept things of the kind during the evening.

We were wrong last week in the statement that E. K. Hunter was dropping out of the town council and G. J. Jones was elected by acclamation. It should have been the other way about. Mr. Jones has dropped out and Mr. Hunter will continue on the council.

Mrs. A. Holden and son Robert of Merville, Alta., and Mrs. Irene Hasketh of Crossfield, Alta., were visitors to the home of Mrs. and Mrs. R. S. Haskayne during the weekend.

A NEW SERVICE

To Gleichen and district will open on March 1st to be known as ELECTRIC APPLIANCES in the store between the Bank and the Queen's Hotel. I will handle a complete line of:

CANADIAN WESTINGHOUSE appliances, such as Electric ranges, refrigerators, radios, Irons, Washers, Toasters, Ironers, Fixtures, Bells and in fact every kind of electrical appliance on the market.

I will offer you a complete first class service on all electrical appliances, house wiring and radios. Just remember that if your needs are anything to do with electricity or radio I will give you first class guaranteed service.

I have had 20 years experience in the radio and electrical business and hold first class Alberta radio technician papers and government electronics papers. I served with the Cdn. Army Overseas as wireless technician and worked on equipment of the kind that will come on the market in the near future.

Appliances and supplies are still scarce but I am able to get a small supply from time to time. So I'll like you to drop in and see me about new appliances you have been wanting for so about that repair job you want done. I'll place your name on my list.

JIMMIE OSTROM

Despite the "breast-beating" of certain leading newspapers in Toronto and their half-hoped-for breakdown of the Dominion-Provincial Conference, nothing like that happened.

The Big Ten adjourned until April 25 in a spirit of co-operation—the Dominion Government anxious to be fair to the provincial units which comprise Canada while at the same time continuing to build a strong and progressive nation, the Provincial Governments wanting adequate fiscal policies for the promotion of those duties peculiarly belonging to the provincial organizations but at the same time having no desire to cripple or handicap the national set-up.

Accordingly the fresh air of realism and the bright sunshine of tolerance produced a most propitious atmosphere in which grew and will surely blossom vigorous and effective Dominion-Provincial relations.

In view of the bullbaiting created by Premier Dwyer's extraordinary counter proposals made public prior to the recent session of the Big Ten, this hopeful stage in the proceedings is a tribute to the statesmanship approach of the Dominion government leaders and to Mr. Dwyer's willingness to withdraw from an impossible position.

FOODS TO BRITAIN

Agriculture Minister Gardiner's return to the Capital after an extended visit in the United Kingdom, where he held discussions with British food experts, highlights the federal government's activities on behalf of the Dominion's food production and of British food requirements, and how the Canadian farmer may help all them, will be made by Mr. Gardiner when parliament meets on March 14, and there will be keen interest in his statement.

One consequence of the government's wartime agricultural policy has been wide-spread knowledge of the quality of Canada's foodstuffs in the United Kingdom. The British like our bacon, eggs, cheese, wheat, and similar farm foodstuffs. The government has hopes that this market can be maintained even after Dominion and other food producing countries get back into full production and export.

Another facet of the government's wartime agricultural policy has been the side-dance and Major C. D. Macdonald's secretary. The speech from the throne containing an outline of the legislative program of the government to introduce will be read by His Honor or after taking his place in the legislative chamber.

agricultural policy was its wheat price declaration during the last session of the Nineteenth Parliament. Commenting on that B. S. Plummer, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Alberta Wheat Pool said: "The Government policy of fixing wheat prices for a five year period is a move in the right direction. A stable wheat price is important."

Security in both production and market returns is the constant objective of the Dominion government, and Canada's farmers have shown themselves as the most progressive in the world.

CANADA CO-OPERATES

The good showing of Canada at the United Nations Organization meeting in further emphasized when J. E. Read, formerly associated with the Department of External Affairs, was elected to the board of the new World Council. Mr. Read is well known in Ottawa for his erudition, common sense, good humor. Hard to ruffle and hard to baffle, his ability to see the main point quickly and to keep seeing it has won him much praise in the capital.

Peacetime Saving

IN A MESSAGE ISSUED at the close of 1945 by Hon. J. L. Riley, Minister of Finance, it was stated that serious consideration is now being given to the setting up of some organized plan for peacetime saving. This plan would resemble the Victory Loan campaign or the War Savings Certificate drives which have been carried out during the past six years, for the purpose of financing the war. The people of Canada have invested heavily in both victory bonds and war savings stamps, and a large percentage of the money raised, came from small investors who would not likely have put their savings into government bonds in time of peace. Much of the money also came from investors who were encouraged to undertake systematic saving through the pay roll deductions plan used for the Victory Loans.

Advantages Of Planned Saving

Each of the nine Victory Loan drives held since 1939 were heavily over-subscribed. In its year-end statement, Mr. Riley revealed that a total of $130,000,000 had been invested by Canadians in war loans, victory bonds, and war savings stamps and certificates, and that of this amount, $69,000,000 had come from individual investors. This great plan of national savings has had many advantages for the people as well as for the government. It has made available funds urgently needed for carrying on the war; it has provided people of all income groups with an opportunity for making sound investments; and in the opinion of the Finance Minister, it has played a very important part in keeping down inflation, always a serious threat in times such as these in which we are now living.

An Investment In The Future

It has often been said that to invest in a government bond is to invest in the future of Canada. During the war, the people showed that they were eager to invest in the security of the nation and were not in doubt but that, even the same encouragement, they would welcome the opportunity to continue to put their savings into some form of government bonds. Throughout Canada, the feeling has been expressed that sums of money such as were raised for the purpose of carrying on the war, could be used in peacetime to improve living conditions and to develop the many potentialities of the country. Now that the war is over, the people are beginning to look to the future, and there are indications that they are willing to invest their savings in the well-being of Canada in time of peace as they were to ensure its security during the war.

How You Can Get Quick Relief From Sore, Painful Piles

Most people seem to think that the only way to get relief from their sore, painful piles is by using a remedy that is advertised as being the best. They are often misled by the claims of these remedies, which are often of a temporary nature, and they are often misled by the claims of these remedies, which are often of a temporary nature, and they are often misled by the claims of these remedies, which are often of a temporary nature.

Richard Clithero, 40 former Royal Canadian Mounted Police corporal in Southern Saskatchewan who started his medical studies when he was 38, has passed his final examinations in London, and returns to the House of Commons as a doctor.

He is a labor member of parliament for Edgely, Liverpool. He is a pharmacist and says he studied for his medical degree simply because "I wanted to have an intelligent understanding of what doctors think." He will not practice.

He intends to visit Canada again for "that country got in my blood."

Makes Good Food

Sunflower Seed Can Be Used In Very Many Ways

The sunflower, though we think of it as something tall, luscious and being over the garden wall—purely decorative—is the source of food for both man and beast.

Sunflower seed has been planted for years in Russia, several South American countries, and Canada as a farm crop. Sunflower seed oil is a source of fat and protein.

Sunflower seed makes a tasty flour with which to enrich bread. It is also used in the manufacture of shortening and in making soap or artificial heat. It's wise to trace an outline on paper for seise before washing, and pin the sock over this on a towel placed flat for drying. When they are comparatively dry on top, turn them over, later place on the rod of a coat hanger and let circulating, air complete the drying process.

NEED SPECIAL CARE

Here's a word of caution on the washing of wool socks. They require the same tender care as sweaters, lukewarm water for both washing and rinsing, and no wringing or artificial heat. It's wise to trace an outline on paper for seise before washing, and pin the sock over this on a towel placed flat for drying. When they are comparatively dry on top, turn them over, later place on the rod of a coat hanger and let circulating, air complete the drying process.

Price Control And Rationing Information

Q—May I serve unrationed meat day?

A—Tuesdays and Fridays are definitely meatless days and no meat may be served on those two days regardless if the meat is rationed or not.

Q—I am a farmer's wife and would like to know if I must cook coupons when I sell my neighbor meat and poultry?

A—Because poultry is rationed it is not necessary for you to collect ration coupons for this sale. However meat coupons must be collected at the rate of one coupon for every four pounds of meat.

Q—What will we use for sugar ration coupons when the present ones are all declared valid?

A—The Green "P" coupons in ration book 5 are to be used for the purchase of sugar and preserves. The first coupon becomes valid in February.

Q—When will the new ration book be issued?

A—Your present ration book will be used for some time yet. There are a number of sheets of coupons which have not yet been used and they will be used.

Please send your questions or your request for the pamphlet "Consumers' News" or the Blue Book in which you keep track of your selling prices, mentioning the name of this paper to the nearest Wartime Prices and Trade Board office in your province.

Magic Eye

Vessel Guided By Radar Steamed Up To The Thames

The 3,000-ton H.M.S. Polux steamed "blind" up the foggy Thames estuary, guided only by the "magic eye" of its radar equipment. The experimental radar ship, a former Canadian locomotive, maneuvered its way past shipping and between buoys in its path, solely on directions telephoned to the captain on the bridge by the navigating officer in charge of radar apparatus in a darkened cabin below decks.

On the circular screen of a grey metal box, the radar set, the navigator could see almost as in an aerial photograph the coastline and every obstruction in the river for a radius of nearly three miles.

TAILORED TO SUIT

Modern Digest says it's no news that understated leading men in movies are a number of things to add illusory height. However, it's not generally known that one Hollywood executive, who is in the short story, has his office and home surroundings tailored to his proportions. His home has low ceilings, doorways, mantelpieces, tables, chairs and bookshelves. He even has hired a short secretary.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

BLUE IS FOR BIG BOYS, TOO

LUELLA GRAYSON turned from the gold earring, the little blue hat of straw still perched on top of her head. Lueella was a girl of the hat from Dan's Hat Shop where she worked, to please the eye of a big two-headed Irishman she had met a few weeks before, and with whom, later that Saturday she was stepping out into the country. It was nice to think of Dan and herself in the country. Dan O'Hara liked blue on Lueella, and Sam Caplan liked his girls to advertise his merchandise, so Lueella was killing two birds with one hat.

Lueella knew very little about Dan O'Hara. Dan didn't talk about himself. He had told her, though, that he was salesman for Reddy Office Supplies, that blue was his favorite color. She had discovered for herself how really charming the Irish could be. But Fanny Vinsberg had been of a different opinion.

Everybody knows an Irishman is a flatterer, and you'd have to be blind not to see he had an eye for the girls. Fanny had been gently but firmly told to mind her own business. Repeating that hat on his stand, Lueella walked towards the front of the store. She exchanged a Japanese turban in the window for a straw-colored halo here, which she thought had more appeal, then stood for a moment gazing out. It was a lovely Spring day.

The door of the shop opened and a quiet-eyed woman entered. Lueella moved to greet her. "May I help you, madam?" she said pleasantly. The woman unfurled her shabby gray coat exposing a soft blue dress she looked oddly out of place in the smartly appointed shop. "I would like a hat to go with this dress," the woman said. "I thought—well, something young-looking with a touch of blue. You see my husband likes blue, but I've been so busy bringing up a family I had almost forgotten." She smiled wistfully. "He used to say that blue matched my eyes."

Lueella's throat contracted, she felt a sudden urge to please this woman. "I think I understand," she said smiling. "my friend likes blue too. I think most men do. Maybe I'll revert back to their childhood, you know pink for girls, blue for boys." Lueella left the woman and walked over to the blue display, intent for once on trying to do the right hat for the right head. As a rule Lueella didn't care who wore what hat, as long as she made the sale. Sales counted in Caplan's, not emotions; the salary was high enough to curb any emotions she might be capable of, so if a customer leaned towards the blue, or an old lady felt that it must have a bonnet, she naturally met the requirements. The customer is always right.

The third hat had been tried and put aside. The woman's expectant eyes sought Lueella's grey ones eagerly as the fourth one took its place on the soft brown hair. "It's a lovely hat, but you don't think it's a little too young for me?" she said doubtfully.

She gave Lueella an apologetic smile. "I'm sorry to give you so much trouble, but you see I don't buy very many hats. I can't afford to, so I would like to be quite sure."

"You're not giving me any trouble," Lueella assured her. "I wish all my customers were as easy to please as you. It's nice on you," she added. "It has a certain appeal, and just enough. . . . Lueella couldn't go on, she just couldn't do it. The hat wasn't for a quiet subdued little creature; it was meant for someone tall, and glamorous—someone very easy of herself. "Just a little more, I think," she said. "I think you'll like better, the headsize may be a little too big, but I'll have our fitter take it in."

She came back with the small twist of blue straw she had intended to wear herself later on in the evening. The price tag said ten twenty-five. Lueella looked at the tag, she made it up on the next two sales, and there are lots of other hats for sale to choose from. It was easy to suit.

It really was amazing what a hat could do: the effect was just about what Lueella had expected. Lueella's woman right out of the dowdy class, into the rare and smart one. The woman turned to Lueella, eyes shining. "If my husband could, see me just once in a while, I don't seem to notice how I look any more as follows:

1. The return to Canada of thousands of service men every month, each of whom needs three or four shirts. This demand on the part of servicemen will continue well into March when, it is expected, the bulk of Canadian servicemen will have been returned to Canada.

2. Lack of skillful labor. Unfortunately most Canadian shirt factories are situated in centers where labor is in short. Also, Board officials say, skilled labor operators who can "turn" a shirt in a matter of seconds are few and take many months to train.

Mussolini's Widow
Monthly Pension Has Been Granted By Italian Authorities

Italian authorities have granted a monthly pension of 35,000 lire to Donna Rachele Mussolini, widow of 11 there, following confirmation of more than 2,000,000 lire deposited in her name in the Naples branch of the Bank of Italy.

Aftonblatt of Stockholm adds that Donna Rachele and her youngest children, Romano and Anna-Maria, are at present interned on the island of Ischia, near Naples.

WANTED HER DOLLAR
Best director E. B. McCutcheon, Portland, Oregon, handed a tenant a cheque for $400 when a landlord had overcharged her. He blushed in surprise for a moment—then asked one question. Did the cheque include a 5¢ deposit on a key? It was McCutcheon's work. He blushed, said he would turn on the key.

anyone; husbands are like that; wait till you get married."

Lueella smiled faintly, she felt a sudden warm glow remembering Dan wasn't like that, but then she wasn't married to him, and some women just leave themselves go, so how could they expect . . .

She said, "Believe me, he'll notice you in this hat; you'll never and any more become mine."

"But it looks so expensive, I'm sure I couldn't afford it."

"You only sit ninety-five," Lueella offered.

"That's still a little more than I intended to pay, but perhaps I could manage it. It's been so long since I had anything really nice." While the woman searched in her purse, Lueella looked at her watch; two more hours to go. She'd be glad when the store closed.

"I think I will take it," the customer said, "and I'll wear it."

"I would," advised Lueella, "it's just the right kind of a day for a new dress."

"Could you send my old one?" "Certainly, and the address?"

"Now let me see. Yes, I think I'll have you send it to my husband's office. I'll stick it up there later."

The telephone rang. Fanny Vinsberg called. "Would you answer?"

Lueella didn't want to answer the phone. A sudden weakness had taken her of her knees. Her mouth was stretched into a forced smile as she stared into the eyes of Mrs. Daniel O'Hara.

Whether there was a glint of pity in the old lady's grateful eyes, she would never know.

HEART ATTACK PROVES FATAL
Frederick Griffin, for 30 years a top-ranking newspaper writer, who suffered a heart attack at his home in Toronto, Ont., died at the age of 66. He was overseas for the years covering nearly every phase of Canadian fighting forces. Born in Newry, County Down, Ireland, he came to Canada at the age of 23.

Shirt Shortage
Will Have To Wait A Few Months To Replenish Stock

Thousands of Canadians whose shirt sleeves and collars are becoming frayed and worn are waiting to wait a few months longer before being able to replenish their stocks of shirts.

"It's not easy to suit," said the opinion of officials of the War-time Price and Trade Board, who state that while shirt production is actually up over pre-war levels, there just isn't enough shirt to go round.

The current shortage results from a combination of circumstances none of which appears to be controllable. The reasons set forth by Board officials are as follows:

1. The return to Canada of thousands of service men every month, each of whom needs three or four shirts. This demand on the part of servicemen will continue well into March when, it is expected, the bulk of Canadian servicemen will have been returned to Canada.

2. Lack of skillful labor. Unfortunately most Canadian shirt factories are situated in centers where labor is in short. Also, Board officials say, skilled labor operators who can "turn" a shirt in a matter of seconds are few and take many months to train.

Mussolini's Widow
Monthly Pension Has Been Granted By Italian Authorities

Italian authorities have granted a monthly pension of 35,000 lire to Donna Rachele Mussolini, widow of 11 there, following confirmation of more than 2,000,000 lire deposited in her name in the Naples branch of the Bank of Italy.

Aftonblatt of Stockholm adds that Donna Rachele and her youngest children, Romano and Anna-Maria, are at present interned on the island of Ischia, near Naples.

THE B.N.A. ACT

Original is Laid In Strong Room In Parliament Buildings In London

A House of Lords decision for 7a 64 51-80 made out to the Canadian Press, bears testimony that the original British North America Act (30 Vict. No. 3) has been inspected.

This reporter can add that Canada's foundation act came through the war as fresh as paint, its printing clear and the vellum pages unwarped. The red ribbon binding it has faded slightly and the text is as strong and precise as the language in the long pages.

Stout black ink set forth, among other things, that a king shall be within the jurisdiction of the federal parliament, and even stouter print on the cover declares the act is for the union of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and the government thereof; and for purposes connected therewith. Date of approval written in ink by a strong hand, is March 29, 1867.

For 7a 64, the standard of the act was taken from a strong room in the Victoria tower of the parliament buildings, where it rests among thousands of others dating back to 1685.

Officials explained the B.N.A. Act original is part of an unbroken series in the care. They had not heard of suggestions that the original should be moved to Canada.

The bill is signed by J. G. Shaw Leferriere, clerk of the parliament in the 18th century. There is also an inked notation in French "la Reine le veut" (the Queen wishes it), the traditional declaration that a measure has come before the throne and been approved.

The B.N.A. act is of what its custodians call the "fat" type, and therefore far easier to handle and read than the long, rolled aboves of vellum covered with great inked letters which are the originals of acts passed prior to 1850.

But for acts of any age the safeguards in the care. Even for 64 they can only be inspected and must not leave the custody of the clerk of the parliament. If the act were required in a court or a parliament, a sworn copy would be made. The original would remain secure in the tower.

Made A Fortune

Immigrant Girl Who Took To Writing Books

Jo Sinclair is 32 years old, the daughter of immigrants, and born soon after their arrival in Brooklyn. She grew up in a period when money was beginning to think that its great days were past, that all frontiers were closed, that a dull and stagnant life had replaced the new and the wide opportunities of its fathers. But Jo did not think so. She went to work in an attic to write a book about immigrant life as she had seen it. She had $10 weekly income and this she shared equally with her parents.

The income came, incidentally, from an anonymous rich man who was devoting his wealth to the encouragement of various unknown authors and gambling on an eventual discovery of real talent. In the work Jo had his finger. For the first time her first book won a $10,000 prize, offered by Harper & Brothers against the competition of 700 other books.

Her manuscript was entered at the last minute, was hurriedly read and revealed itself as a masterpiece. The girl in the Brooklyn garret has made her fortune and her reputation overnight—Winnipeg Free Press.

Parachutes saved 30,000 lives during the war, something unknown in the first war. The men who pioneered this and took the first jumps deserve fame.

Greater Wheat Acreage Needed To Meet Famine

Line Elevators
Urge Government
To Increase
Acreage Objective

The Dominion government has been urged to request Canadian farmers to grow the maximum possible wheat acreage this year, and to undertake to accept delivery from farmers of all wheat grown this year.

"From a review of the world wheat situation it is apparent that there must be drastic upward revision in the Dominion Government's agricultural production objectives for wheat acreage in 1946. Wheat acreage objectives for this year has been set at 23,414,000 acres, namely 23,414,000 acres for all Canada. This is 5,321,200 acres less than the acreage sown to wheat in 1945. The government is fully aware of the shortage of food prevailing throughout the world and to meet this situation it is imperative to increase cereal production as the most effective means of alleviating the critical famine conditions prevailing.

"Within six months Canada will be harvesting the new crop and Canada's grain handling machinery is such that this wheat could be poured into food storage areas immediately thereafter. There is no universal foodstuff that can be produced in quantities required as rapidly as wheat bread. From a nutritional standpoint such foods as meats, fats, dairy and poultry products are desirable for a balanced diet but their production and movement to market require greater time. With shipping space plentiful wheat is the logical foodstuff to cope with starvation conditions prevailing throughout large areas of the world.

"While we are in accord with the long-range agricultural policies of the government, such practices it would seem temporarily must be set aside in favor of an imperative course which will ensure the greatest possible production of life sustaining food which can be produced and delivered in quantities most readily. To this end we urge that the government request Canadian farmers to produce all the wheat within their powers of production in 1946 and furthermore that the government undertake to accept delivery from farmers of all wheat grown this year. "The Line Elevator Companies are prepared to lend every possible assistance to the government in publicizing such a policy and to ensure the seeding of the greatest possible acreage of wheat this year and the expeditious movement of the crop to conditions of the nation is a matter of satisfaction and pride to many citizens. Again and again this was apparent during the war years. There were numerous bodies set up between Canada and various United Nations for the prosecution of the war effort and Canadians invariably carried their weight.

For example, only recently the United States-Canada War Production Board was dissolved, after nearly five years of co-operative action. The Board which aimed at maximum war production in the shortest possible time through the integration of the production and resources of Canada and the United States, brought high words of praise from President Truman.

Another organization—this time all Canadian—which co-operated with an outside nation was the Canadian crown company, Wm. Supples Limited, which was responsible for the handling of purchases in Canada of war supplies required by the United States. A few days ago this crown company was awarded a United States Navy "certificate of achievement" which is given for a "meritorious contribution." Once again, Canadians had shown they can further the interests of the progressive nations through friendly co-operation.

The forestry branch of the Alberta government supplied between 400 and 500 farms with certain varieties of trees in 1945. T. F. Blegen, provincial director of forestry, estimates that 775,000 trees took root in Alberta soil. He estimates that 500,000 young trees will be planted in Alberta in 1946. These seedlings provide windbreaks and wood lots for farmers.
